ABSTRACT

Physical channels are to be assigned to a set of slots in a hybrid time division multiple access/code division multiple access wireless communication system. The set of time slots are arranged into a sequence based on a quality of each of the set of time slots. The physical channels are assigned to the time slots in a time slot order of the sequence.